at one time the use of corporal punishment by parents in child rearing was considered normal but in the second half of the nineteenth century this began to change in quebec as well as the rest of the western world it was during this period that the extent of ill treatment inflicted on children treatment once excused as good child rearing practice was discovered this book analyzes both the advice provided to parents and the different forms of child abuse within families cliche derives her information from family magazines reports and advice columns in newspapers people's life stories the records of the montreal juvenile court and even comic strips two dates are given particular focus 1920 with the trial of the parents of aurore gagnon which sensitized the public to the phenomenon of child martyrs and 1940 with the advent of the new education movement which was based on psychology rather than strict discipline and religious doctrine there has always been child abuse what has changed is society's sensitivity to it that is why defenders of children's rights call for the repeal of section 43 of the canadian criminal code which authorizes reasonable corporal punishment abuse or punishment considers not only the history of violence towards children in quebec but the history of public perception of this violence and what it means for the rest of canada of all the infantry small arms developed during world war ii one that generated the most interest was the german assault rifle the stg 44 sturmgewehr this innovative weapon inspired the soviet ak 47 in 7.62x39mm calibre in the west the nato countries looked hard at new weapons to upgrade their own infantry arsenals and counter the ak 47 resulting in the design of the fusil automatique léger or fal it proved to be a successful battle rifle and was soon adopted by the military and police forces of no fewer than 93 nations the fal dominated the militaries of the west to such a degree that its nickname became the right arm of the free world the fal fulfilled every role it was asked to perform and remains a viable and well respected weapon to this day a highly illustrated absorbing account of the first battle of the desert war the british against the italians operation compass was originally envisaged as a spoiling attack combined with a reconnaissance in force to disrupt the italian forces that had advanced into egypt in september 1940 lt gen richard o connor launched what amounted to a british blitzkrieg in less than two months the british forces swept 500 miles along the coast of north africa 7th armoured division raced across the desert to cut off the retreating italians and o connor's men destroyed 9 italian divisions and took 130 000 prisoners in march 1941 general rommel and the afrikakorps landed at tripoli the russo-japanese war in manchuria was the first 20th century conflict fought between the regular armies of major powers employing the most modern means machine guns trench warfare minefields and telephone communications the battle of mukden in march 1905 was the largest clash of armies in world history up to that date events were followed by many foreign observers but the events of 1914 in western europe suggest that not all of them drew the correct conclusions for the first time in the west the armies of this distant but important war are described and illustrated in detail with rare photos and the superbly atmospheric paintings of russia s leading military illustrator
