this book is a collection of fairy tales in udeghe udihe an endangered tungus language spoken by approximately 100 people in the southern part of the russian far east it provides the first fairly representative sample of folklore in the southern dialect of udeghe the twenty five texts were recorded from udeghe speakers in the primorje region of russia between 1984 and 1997 they are published in phonological transcription and supplied with morpheme by morpheme glosses and english translations the footnotes clarify certain udeghe words expressions objects and customs and provide information on when and how the texts were recorded as well as about similar motifs that appear in other published sources on the folklore of the udeghe and other tungus people the book also contains a preface which explains the conventions used in rendering the texts and gives a brief introduction to udeghe language and culture research on nominalization a process that gives rise to referring expressions has always played a central role in linguistic investigations over the years there has also been growing evidence that nominalization constructions often extend to non referential domains they participate in noun modifying expressions e g genitive and relative clauses subordinate clauses and topic constructions finite structures with the nominalizers reanalyzed as tam markers and stance constructions with evaluative attitudinal evidential and epistemic overtones this volume brings together historical and crosslinguistic evidence from more than 20 different languages representing six different language families spanning the asian continent and the pacific and indian oceans to elucidate the strategies and grammaticalization pathways that give rise to both referential and non referential uses of nominalization constructions this collection highlights the diversity of strategies and at the same time the robust cyclical nature of change within and across languages the combined diachronic and typological analyses in this volume are particularly valuable for linguistic research on diachronic morphosyntax and linguistic universals and are also an important supplementary cross referencing tool for linguistic investigations of versatile and ubiquitous morphemes in under documented languages
