the work of bernard of clairvaux 1090 1153 consists of mystical highlights moments of stylistic beauty and traditional exegetical discourse in contrast to previous studies this book does not limit itself to the historical and devotional side of bernard but brings to the fore his stylistic originality bernard emerges as a flexible thinker a great dramatist and an adroit master of language who combines the fixed pattern of monastic life with the vicissitudes of extra mural events on the one hand bernard s writings are composed according to the rhythm of the uninterrupted ritual of prayer and singing inside the walls of the monastery on the other hand that ritual is interspersed with notions of love and death the present study describes the literary devices through which bernard shapes the monastic existence as a subtle blend of liturgical routine and uncontrollable events and emotions
