Goldwell Hair Color 11 Decoding Goldwell Hair Color 11 Your Guide to Achieving Stunning Blonde So you're intrigued by Goldwell hair color 11. Excellent choice. This shade often represents a coveted lighter blonde but navigating the world of professional hair color can feel daunting. This comprehensive guide will demystify Goldwell 11 helping you understand its nuances application techniques and how to achieve the perfect blonde you've always dreamed of. Understanding Goldwell's Number System Before diving into Goldwell 11 specifically, let's grasp the basics of their color chart. Goldwell like many professional hair color brands uses a numerical system to represent shades. The first number indicates the level ranging from 1 blackest to 10 lightest natural blonde. The second number signifies the tone often reflecting warmth (reds, golds, oranges) or coolness (ash, violet, beige). The third number, if present, indicates the intensity of the tone. Therefore, a Goldwell 11 signifies a very light blonde. However, the exact shade will vary depending on the second and third numbers. You might encounter shades like Goldwell 110 Natural Light Blonde, a cool, almost white blonde with minimal warmth. Think icy Scandinavian blonde. Goldwell 113 Light Beige Blonde, a softer, warmer light blonde with subtle beige undertones. This offers a more natural-looking blonde. Goldwell 118 Light Ash Blonde, a cool, sophisticated light blonde with ash undertones to neutralize any yellow or gold tones. Perfect for covering brassiness. Goldwell 1113 Light Pearl Blonde. This is likely to be a very light blonde with pearly, almost iridescent highlights. Visualizing the Shades Imagine these shades: 110 Think of freshly fallen snow, bright, clean, and cool; 113 Picture the color of creamy light beige sand, warm and inviting; 118 Envision a silvery-white blonde similar to the ash from a winter fire, sophisticated and understated; 1113 Think of a pearl necklace gleaming in the light, luminous and iridescent. 2 How to Use Goldwell Color 11 Goldwell 11 being a very light blonde requires careful application and often involves a multi step process especially if you're starting with darker hair. Here's a general guide:

Step 1: Consultation with a Professional. This is crucial. A stylist can assess your hair's current condition, porosity, and underlying pigment to determine the best approach. They'll recommend the specific Goldwell 11 shade and any prelightening or toning steps needed.

Step 2: Prelightening (if necessary). If your hair isn't already light enough, prelightening is essential. This involves using a bleach to lift the natural pigment to a level suitable for the 11 shade. This step is best left to professionals due to the potential for damage if not done correctly.

Step 3: Applying Goldwell 11. Your stylist will carefully apply the Goldwell 11 color following the manufacturer's instructions. This often involves sectioning the hair and using specific techniques for even distribution.

Step 4: Processing Time. The processing time varies depending on the chosen formula and your hair's condition. Your stylist will monitor the process carefully.

Step 5: Rinse and Condition. Once the processing time is complete, the color is rinsed thoroughly and a suitable conditioner is applied to restore moisture and shine.

Step 6: Toning. Toning is often necessary after lightening to neutralize any unwanted yellow or brassy tones and achieve the desired icy or ashy blonde. Your stylist will choose the appropriate toner to complement the 11 shade.
