the lives of the six principal characters encountered in this volume five women and one man collectively extend from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century what is most revealing is the evidence of consciousness and changing circumstances in the decades before world war i as these people went from slavery to some sort of freedom this alternation was not necessarily by a formal act of emancipation but all the focus characters finally belonged to or were sheltered in a christian community with a strong antislavery ideology and the capacity to provide a base for social reconstruction page 4 of cover
