collects legendary and controversial works by the mid twentieth century writer including posthumous unedited and previously unseen versions in a comparative anthology that offers insight into the influence of editor gordon lish in collections such as will you please be quiet please and what we talk about when we talk about love raymond carver wrote with unflinching exactness about men and women enduring lives on the knife edge of poverty and other deprivations beneath his pared down surfaces run disturbing violent undercurrents suggestive rather than explicit and seeming all the more powerful for what is left unsaid carver's stories were held up as exemplars of a new school in american fiction known as minimalism or dirty realism a movement whose wide influence continues to this day carver's stories were brilliant in their detachment and use of the oblique ambiguous gesture yet there were signs of a different sort of sensibility at work in books such as cathedral and the later tales included in the collected stories volume where i'm calling from carver revealed himself to be a more expansive writer than in the earlier published books displaying chekhovian sympathies toward his characters and relying less on elliptical effects in gathering all of carver s stories including early sketches and posthumously discovered works the library of america s collected stories provides a comprehensive overview of carver s career as we have come to know it the promise of will you please be quiet please and the breakthrough of what we talk about on through the departures taken in cathedral and the pathos of the late stories but it also prompts a fresh consideration of carver by presenting beginners an edition of the manuscript of what we talk about when we talk about love that carver submitted to gordon lish his editor and a crucial influence on his development lish s editing was so extensive that at one point carver wrote him an anguished letter asking him not to publish the book now for the first time readers can read both the manuscript and published versions of the collection that established carver as a major american writer offering a fascinating window into the complex fraught relation between writer and editor beginners expands our sense of carver and is essential reading for anyone who cares about his achievement library of america is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation s literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print america s best and most significant writing the library of america series includes more than 300 volumes to date authoritative editions that average 1 000 pages in length feature cloth covers sewn bindings and ribbon markers and are printed on premium acid free paper that will last for centuries the complete uncollected fiction and nonfiction including the five posthumously discovered last stories published here in book form for the first time from one of the great short story writers of our time of any time the philadelphia inquirer call if you need me includes all of the prose previously collected in no heroics please four essays from fires and those five marvelous stories that range over the period of carver s mature writing and give his devoted readers a final glimpse of the great writer at work the pure pleasure of carver s writing is everywhere in his work here no less than in those stories that have already entered the canon of modern literature a rich collection of poems from not only one of the great short story writers of our time the philadelphia inquirer but one of america s most large hearted and affecting poets like raymond carver s stories the more than 300 poems in all of us are marked by a keen attention to the physical world an uncanny ability to compress vast feeling into discreet moments a voice of conversational intimacy and an unstinting sympathy this complete edition brings together all the poems of carver s five previous books from fires to the posthumously published no heroics please it also contains bibliographical and textual notes on individual poems a chronology of carver s life and work and a moving introduction by carver s widow the poet tess gallagher the american short story since 1950 offers a reappraisal and contextualisation of a critically underrated genre during a particularly rich period in its history it offers new readings of important stories by key writers including flannery o connor john cheever donald barthelme raymond carver lorrie moore and grace paley these readings are related throughout to the various contexts in which stories are written and published including creative writing schools story writing handbooks mass market and little magazines from the new york times bestselling author of the empathy exams comes this transformative work showing that sometimes the recovery is more gripping than the addiction with its deeply personal and seamless blend of memoir cultural history literary criticism and reportage the recovering turns our understanding of the traditional addiction narrative on its head demonstrating that the story of recovery can be every bit as electrifying as the train wreck itself leslie jamison deftly excavates the stories we tell about addiction both her own and others and examines what we want these stories to do and what happens when they fail us all the while she offers a fascinating look at the larger history of the recovery movement and at the complicated bearing that race and class have on our understanding of who is criminal and who is ill at the heart of the book is jamison's ongoing conversation with literary and artistic geniuses whose lives and works were shaped by alcoholism and substance dependence including john berryman jean rhys billie holiday raymond carver denis johnson and david foster wallace as well as brilliant lesser known figures such as george cain lost to obscurity but newly illuminated here through its unvarnished relation of jamison's own ordeals the recovering also becomes a book about a different kind of dependency the way our desires can make us all as she puts it broken spigots of need it's about the particular loneliness of the human experience the craving for love that both devours us and shapes who we are for her striking language and piercing observations jamison has been compared to such iconic writers as joan didion and susan sontag yet her utterly singular voice also offers something new with enormous empathy and wisdom jamison has given us nothing less than the story of addiction and recovery in america writ large a definitive and revelatory account that will resonate for years to come american literature has long celebrated the figure of the self made man and the idea of establishing selfhood particularly male selfhood in nature however during the crisis of masculinity that swept across america in the middle of the twentieth century a generation of writers started exploring a different kind of a man this was a figure who was concerned not so much with the loss of the west or the desire to recover a wilderness but with how to live in an ordinary domesticated continent masculinity and place in american literature since 1950 explores the role of place in negotiating reinforcing and subverting articulations of hegemonic masculinity in the work of four american writers from the latter part of the 20th century john cheever john updike raymond carver and richard ford the book argues that american fiction by white male writers between the 1950s and the present day is compelled by the troubled and troubling relationship between masculinity and place this relationship is deeply embedded in how ideals of masculinity are predicated upon the experience of the physical world and how the symbolic logic of masculinity is continually subverted by alternative conceptions of dwelling and ecological consciousness the nine stories and one poem collected in this volume formed the basis for the astonishingly original film short cuts directed by robert altman collected altogether in this volume these stories form a searing and indelible portrait of american innocence and loss from the collections will you please be quiet please where i'm calling from what we talk about when we talk about love and a new path to the waterfall including an introduction by robert altman with deadpan humor and enormous tenderness this is the work of one of the true contemporary masters the new york review of books in the late 1970s a jeff koons art exhibit featured mounted vacuum cleaners lit by fluorescent tube lighting and identified by their product names new hoover quik broom new hoover celebrity iv raymond carver published short stories such as are these actual miles that cataloged the furniture portable air conditioners and children's bicycles in a family home some years later the garbage barge mobro 4000 turned into an international scandal as it spent months at sea unable to dump its trash as it was refused by port after port tim jelfs's the argument about things in the 1980s considers all this and more in a broad study of the literature and culture of the long 1980s it contributes to of the moment scholarly debate about material culture high finance and ecological degradation shedding new light on the complex relationship between neoliberalism and cultural life
